

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. I appreciated the State of Indiana's effort to block the calls. Sales calls are annoying and have interrupted my sleep. I do not wish to obtain unsolicited calls. I will not buy ANYTHING over the telephone. I would prefer to receive mail instead. The telephone customer should be able to maintain control and have the right to choose.